BO { בּא } (COME/GO)

Exodus 10:1-13:16, Jeremiah 46:13-28, Romans 9:14-29

The Old Testament is the key to a deeper understanding of the New Testament.

Trying to walk in New Covenant faith without understanding the Torah is like building a structure without a proper foundation.

YHWH asked Pharaoh, “How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me?” (Exodus 10:3) Although this word was spoken to Pharaoh so long ago, we can each look to ourselves and ask the same question. Are we really humbling ourselves before YHWH?

Are we conforming our lives to the Word of ELOHIM? Or are we persisting in doing things our own way, following family traditions and religious rituals that even nullify the commandments of Elohim?

YHWH sent the three final plagues: locust, darkness and death of the firstborn. After the last plague, Pharaoh finally capitulated, triggering the exodus of the Hebrews. YHWH then gave them instructions on celebrating the first Passover.

We experience the Beginning of YHWH's Timeline - His Holy Calendar and the first Passover and within it – the central message of the Gospel: Salvation through the blood of the Lamb YESHUA!

We can be so thankful that he or she whom the Son has set free is free indeed. Yeshua says to the enemy of our souls as Moses did to Pharaoh: ‘Let my people go!’ Yeshua came to give freedom to the prisoners of darkness. (Isaiah 49:9) He came to set the captives free! (Isaiah 61:1) In a synagogue one Shabbat, Yeshua proclaimed his mission: “He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, To proclaim liberty to the captives And recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed;” (Luke 4:18)

Many of the plagues of Egypt are repeated in the book of Revelation. But we are YAH’s Covenant people and can therefore expect HIS protection over us in the coming end time tribulation. We need not fear the future as long as we dwell in the shelter of His wings. (Psalm 91). It means that when the storms hit, we hold our peace. We remain calm, trusting in the YHWH, full of faith and hope in believing. We are eagles, not chickens.

Our flesh may want to run and hide in fear, every time a storm hits; but the eagle of our spirit wants to rise up and soar even higher.

If we can remain in faith and trust, then we will know in our spirit that YESHUA works all things together for good and even this storm in our life will only serve to bring us higher and better off than before.

STAY STRONG AND STAY FOCUSED ON THE WRITTEN WORD AND THE LINING WORD, YESHUA OUR REDEEMER!